The NUGGET

Published by the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty Eight in their Senior Year at

RAMSEY HIGH SCHOOL

Ramsey New Jersey

Alma Mater

Sing the praise of dear old R. H. S.
Dear old Ramsey High;
Blend your voices in the glad refrain till
the echoes die;
Other halls may claim their boast and other
lips may speak their toast,
But our hearts to one name shall e'er be true,
Dear old Ramsey High.

Chorus

Keeping time we swing along the line;
Hearts are filled with praise;
Days of gladness memories so dear,
Happy, happy days,
Loyal lads and lassies loyal too,
As the years roll by—
We will sing our song of praise to you,
Dear old Ramsey High.

—Carl H. Galloway.

Dedication

At the close of our high school education, and on the brink of the unknown future, we pause and look back.

Four happy and eventful years have we had in Ramsey High School. For this we are very grateful to the Board of Education that was instrumental in the erecting of this beautiful school, in which we, as the first senior class to have studied there, have taken particular pride; to the Administration and Faculty who have not only seen to our mental training, but made our extra-curricular activities successful and pleasant.

As much as we owe to them, however, we feel that at this time we should like to pay tribute to our parents.

They have given us a precious heritage—a cornerstone on which to build our lives—a foundation of character and ideals as well as the opportunity of equipping ourselves through education to build higher according to our own design.

To our parents, therefore, do we, the class of 1938, gratefully dedicate this—our book.

Senior Class History

One memorable September morning in 1934, Mr. Tisdale was glad to welcome to Ramsey High School a new group of innocent freshmen whose superior talent and ability proved without a doubt that they were to be an outstanding success. Despite the fact that the average class does little in its freshman year, we, the class of '38, distinguished ourselves early with excellent baseball, basketball, and football teams which were to provide fine material for future squads of the blue and gold.

As sophomores we increased our prestige and self-reliance by presenting in assembly a glamorous "Guest-Star Program," in which many of our gifted members took part. Once again our athletes skillfully did their part in stiff competition with other schools.

With the arrival of our Junior year we realized that we had skyrocketed from comparative infancy into the lofty ranks of upperclassmen. Full of pep and vitality we went into action at once and crammed the year full of activities which were naturally successful and immensely interesting. During the crisp, cool days of fall we swelled our treasury considerably by employing our expert salesmanship to sell (attractive?) Christmas Cards. In November, Tommy Murphy and his orchestra played for our Card Party and Dance which, need we say, easily excelled all other school activities. Then, early in May, after long and good-natured rehearsing we staged a Junior Novelty Nite, which incredible as it may seem, was actually novel. We confidently believe that it outclassed any other presented, in music, dancing and acting. The thunderous applause for our Novelty Nite had barely died away before preparations were made for the supreme event of the year. The ever-glamorous Junior Prom. Soft were the lights and sweet the music on the night the Juniors danced.

This year as illustrious Seniors we entered the new high school fired with the ambition to bring our activities, extra-curricula and perhaps scholastic, to a glorious climax. Industrious rehearsing together with natural dramatic ability insured the success of our play, "And Let Who Will Be Clever". A few days after Christmas, we held the Senior Hop, an event long to be remembered.

Now June has come and with it the end of four glorious years in Ramsey High. They have been long and in some places difficult. Yet all difficulty fades into insignificance when we recall the pleasure and happiness.

Behind us we leave this year book as the log of our successes and failures; our inspirations and disappointments. May the classes of the future profit by it and carry on the cherished traditions of Ramsey High.

WHAT FER!

I

The weather's fine,
The time goes fast,
I'm feeling fine, yes, sir!
And when exams,
Have come and past,
I'll only say, "what fer"!

II

I've got a car,
It's pretty old,
It knocks at 30 per!
I always say
I'll have it fixed,
But then I say, "what fer"!

III

Another year
Has gone and went
And I'm no worse or better!
But I'll be back,
Next year I hope,
And I'll still say "what fer"!

Sneezy—The first breath of spring.

Happy—"There will be no third period today."

Dopey—Relaxation Period—HM!

Grumpy—The culprits. How did you like that Tuesday afternoon assembly?

Bashful—The Seniors receiving their diplomas, or would you say shy?

Sleepy—Those nurse's room cowboys.

Doc—Guess.

Midge: "Gay, Paul keeps staring at me in English Class."

Gay: "I didn't notice. Where does he sit?

Midge: "Right in back of me."

Mr. O'Connor, rushing to shower room after hearing shout for help: "What's the matter?"

Soph: "I dropped my towel in the shower and I'm drying myself wetter than I was."

Young Fresh: "Gee, our football men must be hard."

Senior: "Why?"

Fresh: "Because they play on a gridiron."

One: "They say Mary is certainly fast."

Two: "Fast? She's even fast asleep."

Pa: "Well, son, how are your marks?"

Ed B.: "They're under water."

Pa: "What do you mean, under water?"

Eddie: "Below "C" level."

Ralph in Restaurant: "Oh, waiter, there's a fly in my soup."

Waiter: "That's all right, he won't drink much."

Barber: "What's the matter? Ain't the razor taking holt?"

Victim: "Yeah, it's taking holt all right, but it ain't lettin' go again."

Jim: "What do you think would go well with my purple and green golf socks?"

Joe: "Hip boots."

Two of our great fishermen had just come back from a successful fishing trip.

Jack Mason: "Say Vince, did you mark the place in the water where we caught all those fish?"

Vince La Vigna: "No, but I put a mark on the side of the boat."

Jack Mason: "You Dope. We may not get the same boat tomorrow."

Officer: "Hey! Pull over to the curb, lady. Did you know you were going 75?"

Gay R.: "Isn't it marvelous, and I only learned to drive yesterday."
